Counsel for Defendant

¹ Defendant is advised that under Rule 10, waiver of personal appearance at arraignment is not a waiver of the arraignment itself. Counsel must appear at the arraignment. The court reserves the right, as provided under Rule 10(b)(3), to decline the waiver. Further, this form must be filed within one full business day before the hearing to enable the judge presiding over the proceeding to determine whether to accept the waiver and to notify the United States Marshal concerning transportation needs.
